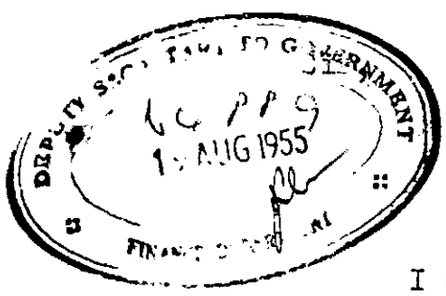
Lr. No.14119-58/57 dated 15.8.55



Sub: Pension - Compassionate gratuity - Application for grant from Srimathi B.Madhavi, widow of late Sri K.Kannan, teacher - Forwarded

I enclose herewith a copy of the application dated 24.3.1955 from Srimathi B.Madhavi, widow of late Sri K. Kannan, Higher Elementary Grade Teacher, Kambangad school, who expired on 25.2.1955 while in service for the grant of the compassionate gratuity.

Sri K.Kannan, served in the Fisheries Department as a teacher from 19.2.1934 to 25.2.1955, and thus he had in service of about 21 years and he was drawing pay Rs.41/- plus Rs.6 as craft allowance and Dearness allowance of Rs.29/- per mensem at the time of his death.

2. The petition was referred to Revenue authorities for enquiry and report about the financial condition of the deceased. It will be seen from the reports that the teacher left behind his widow (the applicant) and five children. Of the five children, the eldest daughter aged 19 years old is married and the four children are minors aged between 8 and 10 years. The deceased has left no property. It is also reported that there is no other member in the family of the applicant who can help her substantially. The Asst. Director of Fisheries Mangalore while forwarding the application reported that separate action has already been taken to disburse the arrears of pay due to the teacher and Final withdrawal of his G.P.F. amount as per certificate issued by the Tahsildar. But he has reported the exact amount at the credit of the late teacher in the General Provident Fund account is not known therefore already sent to the Accountant General application for payment of the amount. He has also requested that the applicant may be sanctioned a gratuity.

3. In the circumstances reported by the revenue authorities and the financial condition of the deceased, I recommend a compassionate gratuity of Rs.316/- calculated at the rate of 12 months' pay and D.A. (i.e. Rs.46 plus 20) subject to Srimathi Patherical Madhavi, niece of B.Kanhan late Sri Kannan, Asst teacher, Kalangad school to be paid the Kasaragod sub treasury.

4. The reports of the Deputy Tahsildar Hosdurg No.A.Dis 2583/58-13 dated 25.6.58 together with the records of enquiry of the Revenue Inspector, the deceased teacher's application and the service register of the deceased teacher are enclosed.

With deep sorrow I have to inform your kind self that my husband (and father of my 5 children four of which are under 10 years) Sri A. Kannan, Asst. teacher, Kanhangad Fisheries Higher Elementary school passed away on 29-2-55. I beg to submit that his old mother Srimathi A. Paparichi, our children and myself are his legal heirs. Request that the Asst. Director may kindly be pleased to view our position sympathetically and recommend for a reasonable amount of gratuity to be paid to us considering the long service of 20 years he (my husband) has put in.

We also, request that the arrears of pay and Provident Fund stand in the name of the deceased may also be paid to us early.
